

6516208886.txt

I think XM satellite radio is the best thing to happen to radio broadcasting in decades. I am willing to pay for this "no commercial", quality music and information service. The traffic and weather reports are helpful to me when I am traveling. I think the FCC should spend their valuable time on other vitally important issues and that they should reject the NAB's petition 04-160.